ACT I THE SPIRIT OF THE MASIA

It symbolises the original identity, origin, tradition, and intrinsic richness of the land before urbanisation. It is the emotional and historical starting point of the neighbourhood, centred around the masias (traditional Catalan country houses) and their vineyards.

Néctar Can Busquets

(Can Busquets Nectar)

12€

Symbolises the authentic and rural origins of the neighbourhood, life revolving around the masia. It is the purest side of history, focusing on the value of heritage. The "nectar" represents the wealth that could be obtained from selling those lands. It questions whether the heirs maintained tradition or got rich by selling off that legacy.

Flavour: Savoury, Spiced, or Umami

HANDCRAFTED GIN

Vendimia Perdida (Lost Harvest)

12€

Represents and symbolises the extinction of agricultural activity (the grape harvest) in Les Corts. It is a lament for the green history that was sacrificed. It questions the need to sacrifice the neighbourhood's identity and agrarian heritage to make way for modernisation, leaving a void in local tradition.

Flavour: Acid + Sweet = Citric

Manzana Discordia

(Apple of Discord)

11€

Represents and symbolises the historical disputes over plot boundaries, water access, or harvesting rights between the different masias and families. It is the conflict that always existed, even before the arrival of the city. The theme focuses on rivalry and greed for the wealth given by the land—a conflict later mirrored in urban development disputes. The title references the classical myth of discord.

Flavour: Acid + Sweet = Lightly spiced citric

RON CARÚPANO

Néctar Can Deu

(Can Déu Nectar)

12€

Represents and symbolises the great wealth and the fruits of the earth that characterised the most important masias, such as Can Déu. It is a celebration of agricultural prosperity. As the closing chapter of Act I, it represents the final and purest drop of prosperity. It is a farewell to the richness of the land.

ACT II

THE DISPUTE

Represents a conceptual battle plan. It is not a pretty map, but a blueprint of conflict: it is the blueprint of the city being attacked by its own urban planning and social decisions. It is the rift between what was promised and what was built.

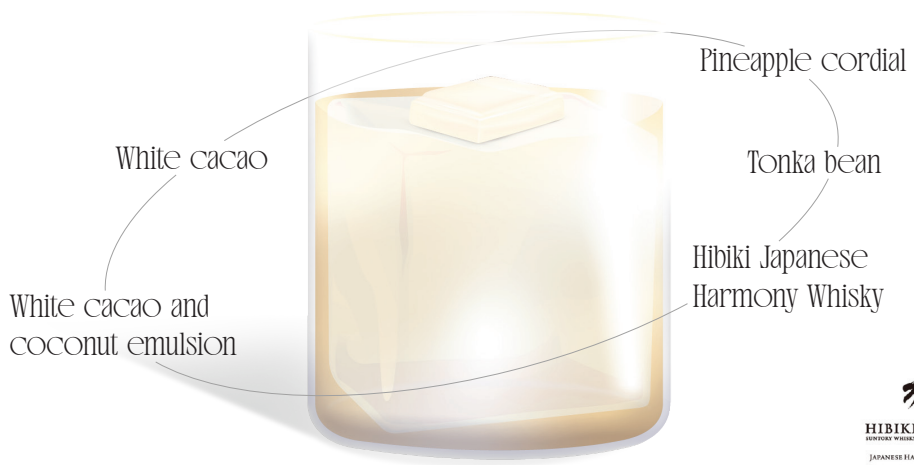

BRUGAL
DOBLE RESERVA

Esquizofrenia urbanística (Urban Schizophrenia)

11€

Represents the chaotic coexistence of styles in the landscape of Les Corts. It criticises how development has been driven by disparate interests and different historical moments, resulting in a visual "schizophrenia" where heritage feels under attack by soulless modernity.

Flavour: Sweet, Umami

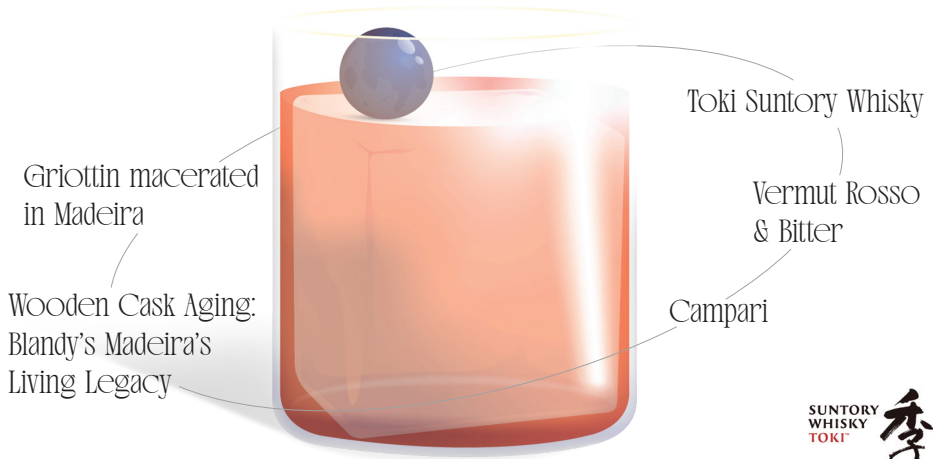

La Riqueza (The Wealth)

16€

Represents the physical and social barrier that exists between the Pedralbes/upper area and the rest of the neighbourhood. It symbolises the opulence that isolates, a wealth that is visible but inaccessible. A critique of the visual division and social disconnection of the most affluent area, creating an "invisible wall" that separates neighbours.

Flavour: Sweet

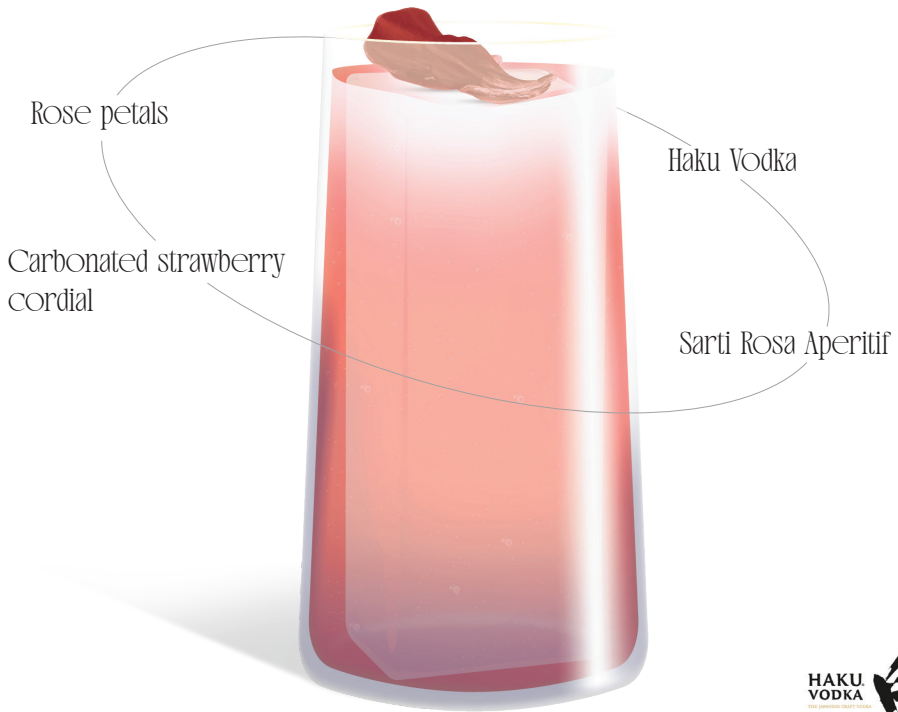

Cimientos de Sangre

(Foundations of Blood)

12€

Represents the coldness, oblivion, and regret over the aggressive urban planning that tore down vineyards, orchards, and masias to erect concrete blocks and asphalt. It criticises the choice to value land for construction over its cultural and historical worth, leaving a bitter aftertaste despite the modernity.

Flavour: Bittersweet

Diva Diagonal

(Diagonal Diva)

12€

Represents the Diagonal avenue as the open wound of Barcelona. The Diagonal does not just cross Les Corts; it tears it apart. It is a line of asphalt that imposes an invisible hierarchy: the "above" and the "below", privilege versus resistance. Diva Diagonal is born from this unresolved tension, an urban controversy that, like a true diva, refuses to go unnoticed and demands to be the centre of all eyes (and disputes).

ACT III

SECRET GARDENS

Represents and symbolises privacy and isolation. It portrays the grand gardens and courtyards of the historic villas and estates in the area—spaces hidden from public view, heritage, and high society. The presence of the Monastery anchors the scene to the neighbourhood, historically associated with nobility and the bourgeoisie. It focuses on exclusivity and the lack of access to the private gardens and historic mansions of the district. It incorporates a style that evokes the Monastery of Pedralbes, with elements of mystery and understated luxury.

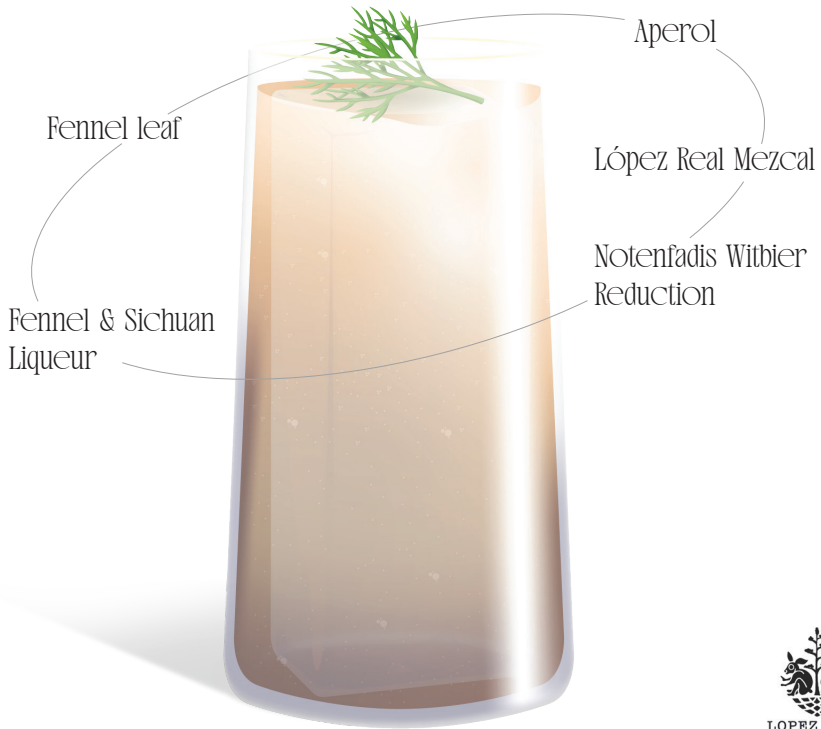

Néctar de Pedralbes

(Pedralbes Nectar)

12€

Faith, permanence, and sanctity. It symbolises the deep historical and spiritual roots, as well as the heritage, of the Pedralbes neighbourhood. High society and the historical figures associated with the monastery and the area. The direct connection between royalty, piety, and the creation of a new nucleus on the Barcelona plain.

Flavour: Spiced citric

El Desengaño

(The Disillusion)

12€

Represents the fall, the disillusionment, and the revelation of truth concerning an institution or a stately home that seemed unshakeable. It symbolises collapse, ruin, or the unveiling of a bitter truth. This is "The Disillusion": the moment when the facade of solidity breaks, revealing the fragility, scandal, or disappointment behind the opulence. The garden alludes to the cultivated, beautiful surroundings that often enveloped these homes, masks for internal turmoil.

Flavour: Smoked citric

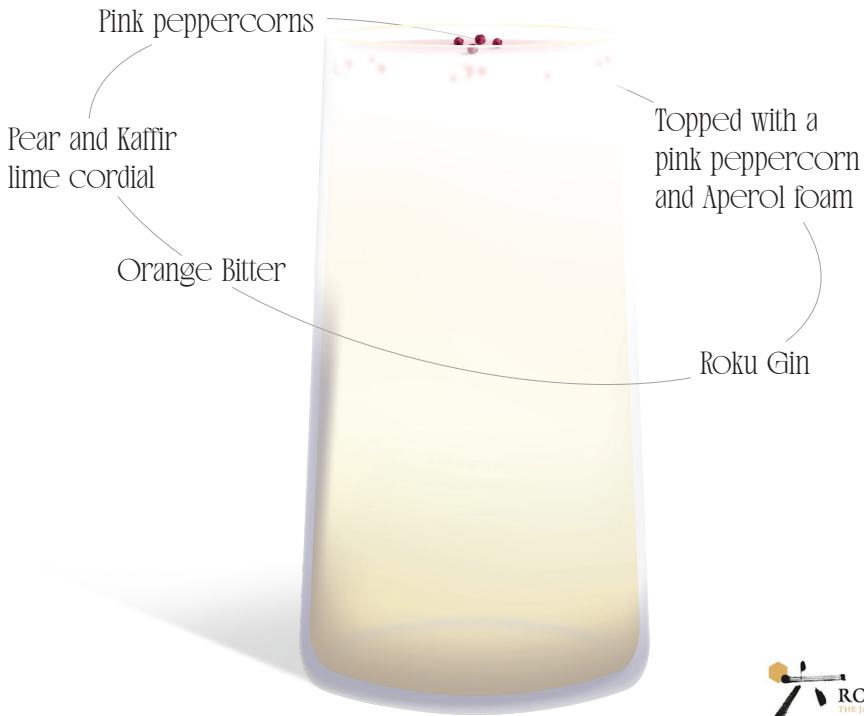

Tamañita Chili Peppers

12€

Represents and symbolises the sophistication and inaccessibility of many of the private gardens and historic palacetes of Les Corts. It is beauty that exists but is jealously guarded, unreachable for the general public.

Flavour: Lightly spicy, spiced citric

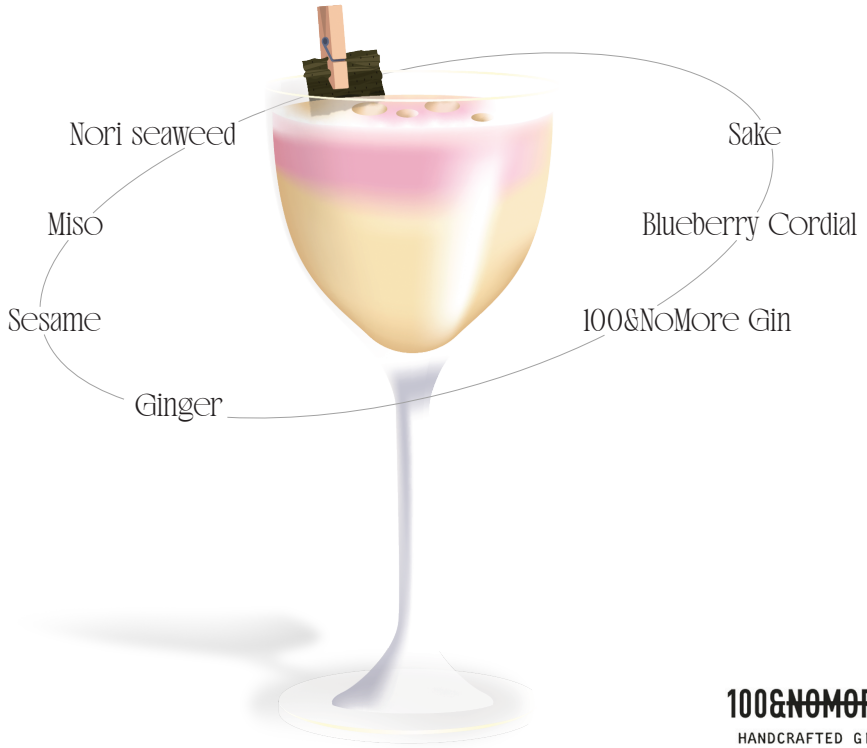

Dama Rose

(Lady Rose)

11€

Represents, symbolises, and evokes the double standard of the bourgeoisie: an impeccable public life contrasted with secret excesses and vices when night falls, delivered in a seductive and mysterious style. "Dama Rose" refers to a figure that personifies both the intensely perfumed flower and the archetypal figure of a mysterious, elegant, and intriguing woman.

Flavour: Citric

L'Invisible

(The Invisible)

12€

There are secrets that are not shouted; they are breathed. L'Invisible is a tribute to the private life of the great estates—the life that unfolds behind pristine facades, known only to the walls, and which, like this cocktail, leaves an indelible mark despite its serene appearance.

Flavour: Sweet, Umami
